

TRACK I-B: WATER/SEWER CONSTRUCTION & REHAB

Tuesday, Jan. 30

Speaker Bios/Photos Received To-Date

8:30-8:55 a.m.

Lessons Learned on East Baton Rouge Sewer Overflow Comprehensive Rehab

Holly Morgan, P.E., Project Manager, Sigma Consulting Group Inc.

Joseph Young, P.E., Program Manager, CH2M

Adam Smith, P.E., Chief-Wastewater Operations & Maintenance, Baton Rouge/E. Baton Rouge

Jason Crain, P.E., Deputy Program Manager, Sigma Consulting Group Inc.

Crain has 20 years of experience in site civil, transportation, drainage, and wastewater engineering and construction. He has spent the last 10 years on Baton Rouge's SSO Program, which consisted of 115 wastewater infrastructure projects, with 32 involving comprehensive sewer rehabilitation.

9-9:25 a.m.

Sioux City Uses HDD to Install Twin 36" Casings for Sewer Siphons

David Reuter, P.E., Vice President-Regional Sales, Underground Solutions

Reuter has extensive experience in the planning, design and construction management of water and wastewater infrastructure. Currently based in the Kansas City area, he has primary sale responsibilities for Underground Solutions' western region.

9:30-9:55 a.m.

Los Angeles Sewer Repair is Sensitive to Residents' Concerns

Ronald Rugamas, P.E., Civil Engineer, City of Los Angeles Bureau of Engineering

Rugamas has worked with the City of Los Angeles for 10+ years, overseeing the construction of wastewater projects with a combined value of $12 million. Multiple project have involved partnering with Los Angeles residents to rehabilitate secondary sewers on difficult-to-access reaches on private property.

Continued, next page

10-10:25 a.m.

Substitute Service Line Improves Health, Safety of Houstonians

Daniel Oefner, P.E., M. ASCE, Supervising Engineer, City of Houston-Wastewater Operations

Oefner, has 12 years of land development experience, as a civil engineering consultant. He joined the public sector in 2009, where he helps to revitalize Houston's sprawling and ever-expanding wastewater collection system. He is also an active member of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

10:30-10:55 a.m.

Valley Forge, PA, Thermoplastic Rehab of 18,000-LF Pipeline

Sean Borris, Project Manager, United Pipeline Systems

11-11:25 a.m.

First Major Pilot Tube Project in the Detroit Area

Steve Matheny, P.E., Logan Clay Products

11:30-11:55 a.m.

Pilot Tube Guided Boring Solutions Meet Project Challenges

Jason Holden, Director of Sales, Akkerman

Holden is responsible for strategy, management, oversight and execution of all domestic and international sales. He has been at Akkerman for 13 years, previously, as product engineer for the micro-tunneling and earth pressure balance product lines.