

TRACK IV= PIPE BURSTING
Tuesday, Jan. 30
Speaker Bios/Photos Received To-Date

8:30-8:55 a.m.

Design Considerations, Benefits of Pipe Bursting

George Mallakis, Regional Manager, TT Technologies

Currently Regional Manager for TT Technologies, Mallakis has more than 30 years of varied trenchless technology experience as an engineer, contractor and manufacturer.

9-9:25 a.m.

Managing Expectations for Trenchless Rehabilitation, Renewal

Matt Timberlake, President, Ted Berry Company Inc.

9:30-9:55 a.m.

Financial Intelligence of Pipe Bursting

Troy Freed, Business Development Manager, Corby Energy Services Inc.

10-10:25 a.m.

Case Studies: Asbestos Cement Pipe Bursting; EncapsulAC

Alan Ambler, P.E., LEED AP, President, AM Trenchless

10:30-10:55 a.m.

Mitigating Risk in Class C Pipe Bursting Projects

Alan Goodman, Strategic Accounts Sales Manager, HammerHead Trenchless

11-11:25 a.m.

Cast Study: Multiple Challenges of Shreveport Bursting Program

Mike Woodcock, Vice President, Portland Utilities Construction Company LLC

Over the past 20 years, Woodcock has overseen the growth of Portland Utilities' trenchless business to over $28 million per year. His company has performed pipe bursting projects in more than 17 states. He has also served as chair of the IPBA for the last two years.